COPYRIGHT RELEASE FORM

I, _____, understand that by entering the TULARAWAN Digital Art Contest for Overseas Filipinos, any submitted entry shall become the sole property of the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA).

It is understood that the submitted artwork, including its accompanying artist's statement/description, may be used for any purpose relevant to the NCCA's mandate. The right to reproduce, adapt, publish, perform, broadcast, and communicate or otherwise use the submitted artwork in part or its entirety in whatever manner it deems appropriate, but not for commercial purposes, is hereby granted to the NCCA.

The undersigned agrees that should his/her submitted entry be chosen as finalist or winner, the digital image/artwork cannot be used without expressed written permission from the NCCA. Further, it is understood that an entry submission into this contest constitutes permission for the NCCA to use any finalist/winner's name, prize information, and other relevant information provided on the registration form for publicity purposes, without further permission and compensation, provided that no violation against any data privacy laws be made.

The undersigned further certifies that no other individual or parties own, or hold copyright interest in the submitted entry/artwork, that he/she holds all rights to the work entered, and that the license granted herein does not violate any third-party rights or applicable laws.
